Attendance and Registration Policy

Responsibility

Individual: Deputy Head Academic and Co-Curricular

Review

Last review date: November 2021

Next review date: November 2022

Introduction

- King's College recognises that pupils will only achieve their potential if they are present in King's College, every day and on time.
- Good attendance is vital for good learning and should be encouraged and rewarded.
- This policy statement will be continually developed in consultation with parents, staff, pupils and governors, to reflect that King's College plays a supportive and complementary role to that of parents in getting pupils to King's College.

Purpose

The aim of this policy is to:

- Maintain accurate attendance data with all absences accounted for
- Monitor and act on any lateness and absences

Every school is required by law to maintain two separate registers of its pupils:

- An admissions register, known as the "School Roll", and
- An attendance register

Attendance and Registration Policy [available to parents]

- Your son/daughter's boarding house is the centre of his/her life at King's College. All pupils are cared for by a Houseparent and a team consisting of Matron and House Tutors. Together, they will be responsible for your child during term, including ensuring that he or she is safely occupied outside normal school hours. We expect your son or daughter to live with you or his/her guardian when he/she is away from School on exets and half term during term time. We ask you to give written notice to your child's Houseparent before he/she leaves the School to stay with another family.
- With the exception of town leave, pupils are not allowed to leave the site during the school day, unless accompanied by a member of staff, for an educational visit or a sporting fixture, the dates of which will have been notified to you in advance.
- Requests for exceptional absence must be made in writing to the Headmaster and should be sent at least two weeks in advance.
- We always send parents the term dates over a year in advance in order that you can arrange your holidays and book flights without disrupting your child's education. We therefore expect your son/daughter to arrive punctually on the first day of term, and not to leave the School before the end of term.
- Please note that it is the School's policy usually not to allow holiday to be taken during term.
- Please complete an absence form on the school portal if your child is ill and/or away from school.

Attendance Register

- Schools are required to ensure that an attendance register is taken twice a day, at the start of the morning session, and during the afternoon for all day pupils.
- Boarding pupils are covered by "Boarding Standards: National Minimum Standards". Standard 15.5 places a legal requirement upon staff who have boarders in their charge to know their whereabouts at all times (or to know where to find them), e.g. by operating a signing in and signing out system when boarders leave the school, and by registering attendance in the boarding house.

The Attendance Registration system

The following system will therefore be followed:

- Registration will be carried out in Houses or lessons by an adult.
- For reasons of welfare all pupils including boarders will be registered before school in the mornings and after lunch.
- When day pupils are not in School and we have received no written message or phone call by 9.30am the School Secretary will contact the parents by phone
- Pupils arriving late to School must report to reception or the Administration Office
- House staff will notify the School Secretary by 9.10am (9.30am on Wednesdays) of any absences (authorised or unauthorised) and the reason if known. If this information changes the reception should be informed as soon as possible. A reason for absence must always be sought. In the afternoon, either house staff or teachers will register their classes and reports will be generated for Administration.
- Administration will use the information to produce a School Register, which will record those who were absent and also those who were present using the categories below
- Pupils who are boarding will also be registered at evening roll-call in Houses.
- Communication informing the school of future absence or explaining absence should be kept on file by Houseparent and passed on to the School Secretary (and Headmaster if relevant).
- If pupils are present during registration but are going out of school any time afterwards, they are still marked as present. Lists of pupils on trips or matches should always be with reception, administration or displayed in the Common Room
- Teaching Staff should check for absentees at the beginning of each lesson and check absences against iSAMS. They should mention any concern to the Houseparent so that it can be followed up. If an unauthorised absence is suspected, the Houseparent should be informed immediately.

Definitions

Every half-day absence from King's College must be classified as authorised or unauthorised.

Unauthorised Absence

All absences are unauthorised until King's College has given approval for one of the reasons mentioned above. In order to develop appropriate responses, King's College will differentiate between different kinds of unauthorised absence. Unauthorised absences are those which King's College does not consider "reasonable" and for which no "leave of absence" has been given. These include (but are not intended to be exhaustive):

- Truancy before or during King's College day
- Absences which have never been properly explained.
- Pupils who arrive at King's College too late to get registered

Authorised Absence

King's College will authorise absences in the following cases:

- Where a parent telephones King's College by 8.20am on the first day of absence and confirms the length of absence with a written message with a reason acceptable to King's College
- Where a parent has failed to contact King's College on the first day of absence, but has offered a satisfactory explanation and confirmation of the length of absence with a written message acceptable to King's College
- When a parent has made a request in advance for absence which is deemed reasonable by King's College.

Lateness

Lateness is unsatisfactory conduct and may, if not discouraged, lead to absenteeism.

- King's College begins at 8.20am and all pupils are expected to be in King's College for registration at this time.
- Any pupil arriving late should enter King's College via the main entrance reporting to reception or Administration to sign in.
- If accompanied, a parent should give a reason for the lateness, which will be added to the register.
- The pupil will then be sent to their lessons.
- Late arrivals are logged and their houseparent is informed.
- If persistent lateness continues then further action will be taken.

The Management of Attendance

- The day to day oversight and monitoring of attendance will be the responsibility of the Administration team. Regular reports will be generated to maintain accurate records and for evaluation by senior management.
- Any morning absences will be followed by a phone call to the parent / house staff.
- We endorse a whole King's College approach to the promotion of good attendance and all staff will:
  1. Make it clear to pupils that punctuality and good attendance is essential, acting as a good role model in their own behaviour.

2. Ensure that lessons are interesting and stimulating for the pupils so that they will want to take part and attend.
3. Take care over all registrations, for lessons as well as at the statutory times, actively and frequently reinforcing the message that pupils are welcomed in class.
4. Follow up all absentees and reasons for absence.
5. Encourage pupils to move purposefully around King's College site so as to arrive at lessons on time.
6. Give sympathetic welcome and support to pupils returning from a period of absence.
7. Be ready to talk to pupils about difficulties they are having in King's College and any problems they may have with attendance. Offer advice as appropriate.

Procedures

If a pupil is reluctant to attend, the problem will be addressed jointly by King's College, parents and pupil.

Non-Attendees

In the case of a pupil who finds King's College attendance a problem, King's College will:

- Establish close links with parents.
- Be as flexible as possible in making arrangements for meeting academic needs in consultation with appropriate agencies.
- Letters will be sent to parents of pupils whose attendance record is a cause for concern.
- Once a pupil has become a cause for concern, his or her attendance will be monitored and parents will be invited in to discuss their child and ways in which their attendance can be improved.

Maintaining records and reporting to the authorities

- If no reason for absence (N) is first entered and this is later corrected (ideally within two weeks) to the appropriate symbol, in this case only, overwriting is allowable in an electronic system. An 'N' must not be allowed to remain indefinitely.
- The School's attendance register kept by means of a computer must be backed up in the form of an electronic or printed copy not less than once a month. Each of these additional copies must be retained for three years after the end of the school year in question.
- Independent schools continue to have a legal duty to report certain attendance issues to their local authority: ten days of unauthorised absence (other than for reasons of sickness or leave of absence), failure to attend regularly, and deletion from the School register when the next school is not known. In this last case, independent schools are required to report the circumstances as soon as possible to the local authority (LA) in which the pupil lives.
